

Select ACSC highlights, 5 year period, 1 March 2017 to 31 March 2022

1

Provide information and support for cancer survivors and carers

27 resources created for cancer survivors and carers in English

26 resources created for specific patient groups including culturally and linguistically diverse groups

total views of the Common Survivorship Issues Directory since launch in March 2019; 14 topics with further expansion planned in 2022

Hosted 9 Cancer Wellness workshops for over 449 cancer survivors

Common Survivorship Issues Directory

2

Provide survivorship education and training for health professionals

Supported the 3rd iteration of the Clinical Placement Program in Cancer Survivorship, for 90 primary care professionals. A 4th iteration commenced in 2021.

4083

health professionals attended education events e.g. workshops, webinars, forums

eviQ Education

- Re-launched six survivorship modules with 17,239 modules accessed
- Launched survivorship rapid learning module, with 836 modules accessed

3

Support improved models of survivorship care

Launched myCarePlan.org.au in March 2019

8,206
website visits

Now available for 6 cancer types

2,020
survivorship care plans generated

Hosted the Victorian Cancer Survivorship Community of Practice 11 times with over 535 attendees

Surveyed 20 hospital cancer services and ran workshops at 18 sites for over 472 Victorian health professionals as part of the statewide 'Embed and spread optimal cancer survivorship care across Victoria' project.

4

Provide leadership around cancer survivorship

Supported the Victorian Government to implement the Victorian Cancer Survivorship Program, phase II (24 projects) and whole of program evaluation.

Hosted 4 NGO forums and supported development of the NGO consensus statement endorsed by 31 prominent cancer related NGOs

Contributed to 18 Victorian or Australia-wide policy or guidance documents

6 seats held on national and international advisory groups by ACSC staff. Groups include the American Society of Clinical Oncology, International Psycho-Oncology Society, Clinical Oncology Society of Australia, Primary Care Collaborative Cancer Clinical Trials Group.

5

Conduct and support survivorship research

Published journal articles and book chapters about cancer survivorship

Student placements

Convened 3 Victorian Cancer Survivorship Conferences with over 804 national and international delegates. The 4th conference was held March 2022.

Presented our work at over 30 conferences, nationally and internationally

6

Deliver a robust, collaborative and sustainable program agree or strongly agree ACSC has raised awareness of survivorship issues (2019 evaluation survey)

agree or strongly agree that ACSC provides leadership in survivorship care in Victoria (2019 evaluation survey)

Over 125,000 total visits to the ACSC website

15 newsletters and 5 'Year in Review' publications

Over 433,000 Twitter impressions and over 28,500 LinkedIn impressions since the ACSC social media launch in February 2020